

Monday Morning Memo – 03.29.2021

Dear Wider Horizons Members and Friends,

Wider Horizons Events and Information this Week

1. Thursday Morning's Zoom with Sue Lerner and Debbie Ward will happen, as always, at 9:30 am. Here's a preview (and see the attachment): Our social justice topic on Thursday April 1 (no fooling) will be about getting out beyond our partisan bubble. Attached you will find two articles, one printed and another to which you can listen. Although you can certainly participate in the discussion without reading or listening in advance, these articles may be of interest to you. Please take a peek. Sue will send out the link on Wednesday.
2. Who is interested in co-cooking now that we who are vaccinated can gather? Wendy Carlton will host. We'll start small, with 4 people. Let me know if you'll be one of them!
3. Rick Grossman has a bunch of foraged and found edible goodies that you can have if you'll pick them up at his home near the Space Needle. Call 846 702-1018.
4. Our next newsletter comes out near the end of April so be sure to take pictures at any of your gatherings and send them on to me!
5. Join our fabulous Somesuch Players (a readers' theater group) when they read Shakespear's 12th Night for "the public" (members and friends). 1-3 pm on Wednesday, April 21. A link will be available soon.

Members and Friends Share Recommendations

1. Spurred by the anti-Asian violence occurring in our community and across the country, one of our members found a resource online she would like to share regarding free Bystander Intervention Trainings. She says, Sometimes we feel so helpless when witnessing but we actually do have the power to make a positive difference. And in many ways. This training is focused on Asian Americans but I feel the principles are applicable to lots of people and situations. I've made an attachment with links so you could understand more about the trainings and register for them.
2. This from John Barber: Some of our members may be interested in a free web program on April 1 about the original people -- the Lake People -- who lived in what is now Seward Park and the surrounding region. The presenter, Paul

Talbert, is an historian who has written a book of history of Seward Park. Here is the link to register: <https://tinyurl.com/2ukpex79>

3. Bob Anderson shared a fun “thought piece” on how beautiful it is to do nothing (attached).
4. And Charles Wheeler shared a link to an article about an exciting new co-housing project in Puyallup:
<https://www.villagecooperative.com/puyallup-wa>

Enjoy the better weather this week. I'll be doing some intensive gardening!

Yours,

Denise

Denise Klein (she/her)

(206 650-3586)

Executive Director

Wider Horizons: Central Seattle's Village for Life!

www.widerhorizonsvillage.org