

Monday Morning Memo – 06.21.2021

Dear Wider Horizons Members and Friends,

Wider Horizons Events and Information

1. Debbie Ward is hosting a potluck dinner at her home on Saturday, June 26 at 6 pm. Attendance is limited to 10. In order to come, you need to accept this assignment: 1) Let Debbie know your top 2 preferred mayoral (preferably from among the most likely to be competitive) or at-large City Council candidates (positions 8 and 9); 2) research them; 3) give a 3-5 minute presentation to the group, telling them what you learned about the two individuals and making a recommendation if you wish. RSVP by email and then Debbie will confirm with you who you'll research in order to avoid duplications. Debbie lives at 816 33rd Ave S in Leschi, with good on-street parking. Questions? Feel free to call Debbie at 415 686-0941. If this one fills up, she'll do another in July.
2. Thursday Morning's All-Member Zoom with Sue Lerner and Debbie Ward will happen, as always, at 9:30 am this Thursday.
3. Sue Lerner is compiling articles that are relevant to Seattle ballot issues. Look for an announcement that these are available on our website!

Members and Friends Share Recommendations

1. Time-Sensitive: Denise Lishner let us know about a free David Domke seminar today at 5 pm via Zoom this evening to educate people about the landmark For the People Act (HR1/S1), which significantly would both protect and advance voting rights nationwide. Domke says, It is imperative that we mobilize to support this legislation and to look forward to 2022's elections. To be candid, the odds are against its passage, but WE. HAVE. A. CHANCE. And thus we will mobilize and work. This lecture will lay out this moment and what we can do. Registration, if it's not too late, is here: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/all-on-the-line-the-freedom-to-vote-2021-in-the-us-senate-tickets-157345818579> Please donate if you attend!
2. Susan Adler says I think our WH community would really like this program of educational activities: Endless Opportunities – Temple De Hirsch Sinai It's free and open to anyone.
3. Wendy Carlton shared this article about housing options (Aging in Place Comfortably and Stylishly): <https://nyti.ms/3u5hRaY>
4. And in this article about villages, especially one on Vashon, sent by Sue Lerner, Jeanne Marie Thomas is quoted.

5. An interesting legacy writing workshop, shared by Carol Mirman, will be offered on June 29 and again on August 10. See the attached flyer for a description and to register.

6. Check out this exhibit at the Frye: THROUGH AUGUST 15 Reserve a

Black Refractions: Highlights from The Studio Museum in Harlem With works in a variety of mediums by nearly eighty artists dating from the 1920s to the present, Black Refractions presents close to a century of creative achievements by artists of African descent. Organized by the American Federation of Arts and The Studio Museum in Harlem, this landmark exhibition proposes a plurality of narratives of Black artistic production and multiple approaches to understanding the Studio Museum's powerful collection.

During warm weather, expect your Monday Memo a bit later. I'm in the garden at 6:30 or 7!

Yours,

Denise
