

Monday Morning Memo – 09.27.2021

Dear Wider Horizons Members and Friends,

Wider Horizons Events and Information

1. Thursday's All-Member Zoom happens in its weekly slot at 9:30 am. Questions and a Zoom link will be sent to you on Wednesday by Sue Lerner.
2. Somesuch Players is looking for more readers for an October 20th, 1 pm reading of Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard. (Likely, due to its length, it will need a second time slot to complete.) If you are interested, please contact Victoria Bestock at dancervictoria@gmail.com The production was the brainchild of Tom Heller who has become something of a Chekhov expert/fan.
3. Nora Langan needs a ride on Tuesday (tomorrow) to pick up a coconut cake to deliver to our friends at the Central Area Senior Center. This is a celebration cake (for the Seattle City Equity Initiative funds CASC will receive). "Congratulations CASC !!!" will be written on top of the cake and it will be accompanied by a card from our village. Pick Nora up at her home between 9:30 am and 1 pm; then pick up the cake in South Park, deliver it to CASC, and return Nora. Please contact her directly at 206 852-4163.
4. The Seattle Times yesterday published a letter-to-the-editor (crafted by Denise Klein at Sue Lerner's recommendation) in response to the excellent article "For older adults, isolation can lead to overwhelming loneliness," in its 9/19 edition (which omitted mention of villages). Hence the letter and here is a link to it: <https://www.seattletimes.com/opinion/letters-to-the-editor/> And a link to the original article: For older adults, isolation can lead to overwhelming loneliness | The Seattle Times
5. For those of you who attended last Friday's Storytelling session, here is a link to Wolfgang Kluge's memoir: <https://mylifeineastgermany.net/> Also, Dick Zerbe suggests our story tellers might be interested in sending their stories to the craft contests at Craft Literary. Read about them at <https://www.craftliterary.com/about-us/>

6. See the attached description of Seattle Central College's Fall classes for seniors.
7. Audrey Hansen sent this link to help you find the closest drop off location for expired medicine since these items are not allowed in your trash container: <https://med-project.org/locations/washington/convenient-locations/>

Yours,

Denise
