

Monday Morning Memo – 07.11.2022

Wider Horizons Events and Information

1. Tuesday evening's (7 pm) All-Member Zoom, led by Susan Adler and Bob Anderson, is tomorrow, July 12. Here is the link and the questions are attached: <https://tinyurl.com/3s7pe7uc>
2. Thursday's All-Member Zoom goes on as always at 9:30 am. Questions and a Zoom link will be sent out to you on Wednesday by Sue Lerner.
3. Our newest member is Judie Messier. Judie was our first bookkeeper (so I've known her for some years, though the fact she joined us is due to the outreach of several members). Judie has been active recently in the Democracy Action Group. Here is her brief bio and she is in the Directory (attached): Pragmatic idealist, optimist. Actor. Had own company doing education-through-theatre. Academic. Masters in Interdisciplinary Social Sciences; PhD Conflict in Analysis and Resolution. Just retired. Little-kid excited about new beginning. Passionate about social justice; listening to others till they feel heard. Lesbian. Neither religious nor spiritual. Extremely well-developed worldview. Touchstone book is The Tao of Physics. At end, want to have Walked the Walk, sufficiently to justify Talking the Talk. Judie lives in West Seattle.
4. Reserve your seat now for an exciting outdoor House Concert and snack potluck on Thursday, August 18 (doors 3:30 pm, music 4:00 pm) on Debbie Ward's deck overlooking Lake Washington (Bill Lippe Impresario). We and our friends get the first shot at seats (up till 8/1 or until all 35 seats are spoken for). To reserve your seat, click on the RSVP link in the attachment, which commits you to making a cash donation of $30-40 (at show time). Featured artists are guitarist/singer-songwriter David Jacobs-Strain davidjacobs-strain.com/ and Philadelphia harmonica virtuoso Bob Beach bobbeach.net/. David and Bob are veterans of both the blues and folk circuits and play off each other in a very fun and intuitive way. Questions to Debbie (debbieward222@gmail.com or 415 686-0941).
5. Fiber Art Interest Group - Friday, July 15 - 10:30-12:00 on zoom. What summer projects are you working on? Please give us a try as we keep insecurely housed youth "Warm For Winter" with handmade hats, scarves and blankets and/or work on personal projects. All levels welcome, help available and warm companionship guaranteed. Drop in visitors encouraged. Call Joan Bergman at 360-204-6780 to request the Zoom link or for more information.

Members and Friends Share Recommendations

1. Ellen Berg is teaching an exciting film-based class about how we respond to the vicissitudes of life on Zoom during the month of August. The class is offered by EDU, a private program of courses and lectures. The attached provides more information about registering and getting on the EDU mailing list.
2. See the attached about how to sign up for David Domke's upcoming lecture series on the religious right and abortion.
3. For those of you who like to read about villages in general, see the article sent to us by a friend. It appeared in the Harvard Health Letter.
4. From Micki Lippe, an article: A Neurologist's Tips to Protect Your Memory <https://www.nytimes.com/2022/07/06/well/mind/memory-loss-prevention.html?referringSource=articleShare>
5. Faces Places is a film that I found very charming and relevant to us. It was made by Agnes Varda, a famous Belgian/French filmmaker and a young colleague filmmaker, JR. Available for a small cost from several sources, including Amazon. Free from Kanopy.

Enjoy our perfect summer weather this week,

Denise
