

Robin Oppenheimer Biography

Robin Oppenheimer is an internationally recognized media arts historian, producer, curator and scholar who has worked in the field since 1980. She ran two media arts centers, worked as an independent producer, and was a lecturer at UW Bothell and Cornish College while receiving a PhD in Interactive Arts and Technology from Simon Fraser U. in 2011. After retiring from teaching in 2016, she enjoys reading, water aerobics, music, and spending time with friends and family, including her grandson.

Marty Oppenheimer Biography

Marty Oppenheimer spent most of his career in the film industry as a camera assistant, camera operator, director of photography, aerial cinematographer, owner of a motion picture camera rental business and as a designer & manufacturer of accessories for the production industry. Prior to this, he worked for the US Forest Service in Montana, on sailboats in the Carribean, and as an off-Broadway theatrical lighting technician. He arrived in the PNW in 1971 as a part of the first group of students at The Evergreen State College, where he earned a BA in 1974. When he is not working he enjoys boating, photography, cooking and spending time with friends, family and his one-and-only grandson.